

THEATRE MINOR

Program Overview

The theatre program provides students with comprehensive training in preparation for a career in the professional theatre. Students take classes in movement, speaking voice, singing (both musical theatre and classical), dance (jazz, tap, ballet, modern and musical theatre dance), piano, music theory, and various acting styles. Students then hone their craft and apply the techniques they have learned in classroom and studio work, recitals and Main Stage theatre productions.

Students are given the opportunity to complete a wide range of theatre courses. This degree is designed to work well with either a double major or dual degree.

For students seeking a degree in another area who wish to minor in Theatre, the following courses are suggested by the department:
