

AMERICAN POLITICS BACHELOR OF ARTS

Program Overview

The Department of Political Science administers a major in American Politics. The undergraduate major, totaling 42 credits, serves our undergraduate students who choose Drake for the distinct experiential environment available in Des Moines and on campus, allowing consistent and meaningful participation in local, state, and national politics. The American Politics major offers students a unique learning environment that synthesizes rigorous academic study alongside practical experience and skills, exemplifying the Drake mission statement's focus on "collaborative learning among students, faculty, and staff" and "the integration of the liberal arts and sciences with professional preparation."
