

COMMUNICATION BACHELOR OF ARTS IN JOURNALISM AND MASS COMMUNICATION

Program Overview

Current students in the School of Journalism and Mass Communication (SJMC), who are within three semesters of graduation and having difficulties aligning their educational goals with any of our on-campus majors, may petition to pursue a Communication major. The proposed Communication major should be distinctive from current on-campus majors, while consisting of courses that meet the minimum Communication major requirements and support the student’s future professional goals.

All petitions must be submitted prior to the first day of class for their last semester. Students will be given a decision within five business days of submitting their complete Communication Major Petition.

Degree Requirements

- Meet all requirements of the Drake Curriculum
- Maintain a 2.0 grade point average during the first 30 credit hours
- Maintain a 2.25 grade point average at Drake after the 30th credit hour
- Maintain a 2.25 grade point average in SJMC course work after the 30th credit hour
- A minimum of 15 upper-level SJMC credit hours

Students should work with their advisers to ensure selection of courses best-suited to their educational and career objectives. Please see Graduation Requirements and Regulations sections of the catalog for additional information.
